Shadow Exclusive

The Shadow has gotten the inside scoop on what's coming to the quickly fading All American City. A person who is closely connected to the exclusive inner circle in our town has turned to face the citizens honestly and decided to run for mayor in the next election. "Enough is Enough" this individual claims as they wish to remain anonymous; fearing retribution. We have the exclusive interview right here on The Shadow.

Shadow: What made you decide to run for mayor of Monrovia?

Candidate: Monrovia was for years going nowhere and I did nothing, now I see it going in the wrong direction. The thought of people like Melissa coming forward and thinking they can lead our city is scary, she came close to winning the last election because people are tired of the same old cronyism nonsense.

Shadow: What kind of mayor does Monrovia need?

How about converting your bungalow into a multi-housing unit today and receive a certificate of appreciation from the mayor. Act within the next 30 days and you will receive a rent and utilities increase in your new low-income dwelling courtesy of your local government.
